4TU. Centre for Ethics and Technology esdit

As 4TU.Cenre for Ethics and Technology and ESDiT research program we declare that the abstract of

Hongxin Su

called The Presumption of Harm: Irreversibility, Cultural Lag, and Democratic Limits on Catastrophic Technology Research has been accepted for presentation at the international conference Technology Ethics in Turbulent Times: Expanding the Moral Agenda for Transformation which will be held 4-6 November 2026 at the Wageningen University in The Netherlands.

Udo Pesch
Chair Scientific committee

Gmail

Hongxin Su <hongxinsue@gmail.com>

Decision on your abstract submission to the conference Technology Ethics in Turbulent Times

conference2026@ethicsandtechnology.eu <conference2026@ethicsandtechnology.eu>

2026年6月30日 17:51

收件人：hongxinsue@gmail.com

Dear Hongxin Su,

We hope you're doing well. Thanks for submitting your abstract entitled The Presumption of Harm: Irreversibility, Cultural Lag, and Democratic Limits on Catastrophic Technology Research to our conference. After having reviewed your abstract with great interest, we are glad to report that your submission is accepted to be presented. We look forward to welcoming you in Wageningen later this year.

Registration will open Wednesday July 1. You can register via this link https://www.esdit.nl/conference-2026/registration/. If possible, we would appreciate it if you could register as soon as possible, since this will aid us in putting the conference program together.

If you already know that you will not be able to visit the conference and will therefore not register, would you be so kind as to inform us about this by sending an email to conference2026@ethicsandtechnology.eu

For further information and updates regarding the conference, please visit the conference website https://www.esdit.nl/conference-2026/

You can reach us at conference2026@ethicsandtechnology.eu for any further questions.

We hope to see you in November.

Kind regards,
The Scientific Committee